

"DEE" BAUSTIAN

Jean Arlene (Dee) Baustian was born May 28, 1922 south of Victor, the daughter of Arley and Nan Bushnell Schafbuch. She passed away Saturday, Feb. 25 at Iowa Methodist Hospital, Des Moines, at 61 years of age.

(Mrs. Gerald)

As a child, she moved to Wisconsin for a few years before moving to Deep River. The family then moved to a farm near Brooklyn, and later to Marengo, where Arlene was graduated from high school.

She attended beautician school in Des Moines. On Nov. 22, 1941, she was married to Gerald (Dode) Baustian at Missouri.

To this union, two sons were born.

After their marriage, the Baustians made their home in Deep River until they moved to Montezuma in 1958.

Dee operated a beauty shop in Deep River, and later in Montezuma.

She was preceded in death by her parents, and one son, Scott, on Feb. 17, 1962, and her brother, Ray. She is survived by her husband, Dode, of Montezuma, and son, Lynn, of Brooklyn.

Funeral service was Tuesday, Feb. 28, 10:30 a.m. at the Methodist Church in Montezuma, with the Rev. John Darlington officiating. Burial was in the Masonic-IOOF Cemetery, Montezuma.

Casket-bearers were Roy Fleming, Gene Douglass, John Rabenold, Dean Doonan, LeRoy Pope and Carroll Schafbuch.

A memorial has been established at the Montezuma Methodist Church. Brooklyn Paper
