

is made that Franklin College sends more men into the ministry than Yale or Harvard. Over half of all its classical graduates for 72 years have entered the ministry.

—Mrs. L. A. Beebe died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Albert Hill in Des Moines, Friday morning, July 9, aged 76 years. The body was buried in Hazelwood Sunday morning, having been brought from Des Moines on the 8:40 train. A good sized company of former friends followed the body to the cemetery where a short service was conducted by Mr. Vittum. Mrs. Beebe was a resident of Grinnell for a few years, sometime ago, and was a sister of the late Mrs. H. G. Little. Her body was accompanied to Grinnell by Albert Hill, wife and son, and Miss Fannie Beebe of Des Moines. Mr. Julian Beebe, of Dakota, was also present at the burial.
All remained over Sunday in Grinnell, guests of Mrs. H. S. Veita.