

Mr. Bennett dies at Boone

Leroy Bennett, 76, died early Monday morning at Boone County Hospital in Boone. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Cleve Bennett, he was born March 16, 1906, at Monroe. He was a construction worker before his retirement. After living a number of years at Otumwa, he moved to Boone where he lived at the Ledges Manor Nursing Home.

Survivors include four children, Bill Bennett of Grinnell, Mildean Garrett of Keosauqua, Edward (Butch) Bennett of the U.S. Navy in the South Pacific and Sally Angus of Bracken Ridge, Pa.; 10 grandchildren; nine great-grandchildren; and one brother, Loren of Knoxville. He was preceded in death by his parents, one brother and one sister.

Mr. Bennett willed his body to medical science, and a memorial service will be conducted at a later date.