

Funeral Services For Arthur Benson

Funeral services for the late Arthur Benson were conducted Sunday of last week at the home two miles north of Kellogg by Rev. H. H. Fletcher, pastor of the Kellogg Methodist church. Pall bearers were Fred Morgan, Roy Rhodes, J. Vewers, W. C. Bradley, Simon Anderson and J. E. Craven.

Mr. Benson was born on a farm 3 1-2 miles north of Kellogg, Feb. 3, 1871, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Benson. On March 13, 1892 he was married to Miss Ida May Faircloth. To this union five children were born of whom three are living. He is survived by his widow, two daughters, Mrs. Ruth Murphy of Newton and Mrs. Shelby Cooper of Kellogg and one son, Hollis Benson, at home; also by two brothers, Seth Benson of Milford, and Fred Benson of Britt, one sister, Mrs. Sadie Ervin of South Dakota, a half brother, William Benson of Grinnell and a half sister, Mrs. I. L. Hinshaw of Kellogg.

Among those attending the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Nels Crownsea and son Carol and Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Kennedy of Grinnell.