

Robert Benton Died Tuesday Following A Heart Attack

Robert Benton, 67, died very suddenly of a heart attack Tuesday morning at the home of his step son, Lauren Wright southeast of Montezuma, where he and his wife were visiting. He was helping unload bales of hay when stricken. Mr. Benton formerly lived in the Montezuma neighborhood but had gone to California a good many years ago with his brother Clifford, who formerly was employed in the Grinnell postoffice. He and Mrs. Benton had returned from California about a year and a half ago. He was a brother of Mrs. Inez Sutton, the widow of Charles Sutton.

Funeral services will be held Saturday at 2 p. m. in the Methodist church in Montezuma with burial in the Montezuma cemetery.
