
W. F. BERGER DIES.

Prominent Citizen of Brooklyn Passes Away Suddenly.

W. F. Berger, retired farmer and honored and respected citizen of Brooklyn, died very suddenly Thursday morning at his home there. Mr. Berger was widely known all over the county and was a member of the Grinnell lodge of Elks. Mr. Berger had been ailing for a week but the day before his death had been down town greeting his friends, apparently as well as ever. His death was entirely unexpected.
