4 - 8   Herbert Black. 1913

The body of Herbert Black was brought to Grinnell Saturday from Rock Island, and buried in Hazelwood. Mr. Black was a Grinnell boy of the earlier days, a whole-hearted, generous young man who was universally liked. Since his boyhood he had lived in Grinnell but a few years. The body was accompanied to Grinnell by his two brothers with their wives. He was a former member of the fire company and members of this organization were pall bearers.
