

Paul M. Black

Paul Milton Black, 77, of Sturgeon Bay, Wis., formerly of Grinnell, died March 31 at Tucson, Ariz.

Burial of the ashes was in Hazelwood Cemetery. Friends may call the Smith Funeral Home for additional information.

The son of Milton and Cecelia Dale Black, he was born July 9, 1912, in Grinnell. He attended Grinnell schools and later moved with his family to Mitchellville.

Mr. Black was an electrical engineer with Commonwealth Edison in Chicago, retiring several years ago to live at Sturgeon Bay.

He is survived by his wife, Louise, and one sister, Josephine Myers of Tucson.
