Lulu Blain Was Pioneer Member Of Beulah Club

Lulu Elizabeth, the oldest daughter of William H. and Maggie Moffitt Hicks, was born in Scott township, Poweshiek county, Dec. 28, 1882, and died Jan. 2, at 81 years of age.

In her youth, she attended the Malcom rural school. On Jan. 6, 1909, she was united in marriage with S.A. (Bud) Blain, and to this union three children were born, one daughter died in infancy.

Their entire married life of nearly 55 years, was spent in the Beulah community. They made a home for their granddaughter, Louise Lohr.

She was a pioneer member of the Beulah Club and was active as long as her health permitted. About three weeks ago she suffered a stroke and since then was cared for in the home of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Daisy Goodwin.

She is survived by her husband and their daughter, Media Reynolds, six grandchildren and five great grandchildren, other relatives and many friends.

Funeral services were conducted at 2 p.m. Jan. 4 at the Steffy Funeral Home, conducted by the Rev. Frank Jacobs. Mrs. Vincent Johnson sang "In the Garden" and "Beyond the Sunset", accompanied by Miss Alice Underwood at the organ.

Interment was in Masonic-IOOF cemetery. Casket-bearers were Raymond McKee, Clair Gregory, Virgil Lester, Ralph Phillips, Marvin Bunnell and Kenneth Johnson.
