

Word came to Mr. Harvey Bliss last Saturday that his brother, Marshall Bliss, had died suddenly on Friday, Dec. 22nd, at his home in Boulder, Colorado. His remains were taken yesterday to Kansas City for interment. Until the early eighties Mr. Bliss was engaged in business in this city. From here he went to Kansas City where he lived until about four years ago, when he moved with his family to Boulder, Colorado, where, with the exception of two winters in California where he went for his health, he spent the remainder of his life. Mr. Bliss leaves a wife and two daughters, Misses Anna and Laura, to mourn the loss of a kind christian husband and father. 12-22-1899
