

George Bradley, for many years a prominent and highly respected citizen of Montezuma, died after a long illness at the home of his daughter, Mrs. S. R. Dryden in Cedar Falls, last Sunday. The deceased was born in Herefordshire, Eng., June 23, 1831, and came to this country in 1869, settling on a farm two miles north of Montezuma, where he resided till his wife's death three years ago. Six children survive him. He was prominent in the M. E. church and a man who commanded the thorough respect of all who knew him. 4-10-1908
