

Judith Ann Bramble

(Linsley)

Judith Ann Bramble, 56, formerly of Newton, died of complications of diabetes Wednesday, July 29, at Immanuel Hospital in Turlock, Calif.

Funeral services were conducted Monday morning at Wallace-Pence Funeral Home in Newton, with the Rev. Eugene Bucklin of Baxter Evangelical Free Church officiating. Burial was in Bethel Cemetery, rural Baxter.

She was the daughter of Lowell Edward and Margaret Louise Lowery Koon and was born June 7, 1942, in Newton. She attended Newton High School.

She was married to Linsley LeRoy Bramble Oct. 29, 1959, in Newton. Mrs. Bramble worked as a nurse aide for the Jasper County Care Facility and Newton Health Care Clinic. She also was employed by Allied and North American Van Lines.

She had been a residence of Turlock, Calif., since October 1997.

Surviving are a brother, Craig Koon of Grinnell, and one sister, Norma Rudolph, also of Grinnell. She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband; one brother, James Koon; and a sister, Helen Louise Koon, in infancy.

Memorial contributions in her name may be made to the American Diabetes Association or the American Cancer Society.

H-R August 3, 1998