

Mrs. Brannian Rites Conducted Tuesday

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at Grace Methodist church for Mrs. Blanche Brannian, who died Sunday evening at her home west of Brooklyn. She was 79 years old.

The Rev. C.W. Woollard officiated at the two o'clock services with Leo Shuler at the organ. Interment was in I.O.O.F. cemetery with the following serving as pallbearers: Kenneth Richman, Keith Brannian, Quinton Montgomery, Ernest Andes, Hugh Montgomery and Lynn Montgomery. Mrs. Freda Read and Mrs. Edward Hall were flower attendants.

Blanche O., daughter of Al S. and Mary Jane Richman, was born in Benton county near Shellsburg Feb. 24, 1886, and died Nov. 21, 1965, near Brooklyn.

She was married to John Brannian, Jr. Feb. 23, 1910, and three sons were born to the couple, Daryl, Maynard and Ronald all of Brooklyn.

With the exception of two years at Shellsburg, Mrs. Brannian had lived her entire life near Brooklyn. She was a member of Grace Methodist church.

Survivors are her three sons; four brothers, Elmer, Frank and Ray Richman of Brooklyn and Earl Richman of Muscatine; one sister, Mrs. Forrest (Margaret) Montgomery, of Dallas, Tex.; and four grandchildren.

2--Brooklyn (Ia.) Chronicle-

-November 25, 1965