

James Breen 6-21-1932 Formerly Of Kellogg, Dies

(By a Staff Correspondent)

Kellogg, Ia., June 21, Special:

James Breen, 65, a native resident of Kellogg, died at his home in Des Moines Saturday evening at 10.00 o'clock following a paralytic stroke which he suffered last Wednesday.

Mr. Breen was born here and several members of the family are still residing here. He began working for the Rock Island railroad when he was sixteen years of age and continued in service until he was pensioned July, 1930. Surviving relatives include his wife and two sons and two daughters of Des Moines; four brothers, B. F., Thomas, Eddie and Joe, and one sister, Mrs. H. S. Roth, all of this place.

Funeral services were held at St. Ambrose church in Des Moines Tuesday morning at 10:00 o'clock and burial was made in St. Ambrose cemetery there.