

E. S. Breneman Dies April 22 In Oregon

Funeral services for E.S. Breneman, 88, a former Brooklyn resident, were held April 25 at Eugene, Ore. The Rev. W. Donald Wellman officiated at the 10:30 a.m. services. Pallbearers were Fred York, H.D. Little, Ronald Crandall, Darrell Wilder, Clark Barnett and Joseph Crandall.

Edward Samuel Breneman died at his home in Eugene, Ore. April 22. He was born Nov. 10, 1875, in Rockingham county, Va. and came to Poweshiek county when a small child. He lived here until 1958 when he moved to Eugene.

He is survived by his wife; six children, Everett of Lowden; Lawrence of Grinnell; Alvin of Klamath Falls, Ore.; Ethel Mae Barnett of Tacoma, Wash.; Eva McCracken of San Francisco, Calif. and Grace Little of Eugene, Ore.; 15 grandchildren; seven great-grandchildren and a sister, Suzann Bucknam of Council Bluffs.

Preceding him in death were three brothers, two sisters, one daughter, Mrs. Belva Willett, and one grandson, Larry Little.

The Brooklyn Chronicle
Thursday, May 7, 1964