

Charles Richard Briggs

Charles (Dick) Richard Briggs, 79, of Lynnville died Dec. 11, 1999 at Mercy Hospital in Des Moines.

His funeral was Dec. 14, 1999 at Mount Zion Cemetery in Jasper County. Officiating was Pastor Pete Schuler of Lynnville. Military rites were performed at the graveside.

Mr. Briggs was born Feb. 23, 1920, the son of Elmo Robert and Elna Margaret (Fritz) Briggs in Lynn Grove Township, Jasper County. He was a lifelong resident of the Lynnville-Sully area.

Mr. Briggs served in the US Army in the European Campaign during World War II. On July 4, 1946, he married G. Maxine Scarbrough.

He worked for and retired from Sully

Co-op Creamery. M R 12-22-1999

Preceding him in death were his parents, Elmo and Elna; two sisters, Ruth Vos and Margaret Kling and two brothers, Keith Briggs and Kenny Briggs.

He is survived by his wife, Maxine; a son, Gary and his wife, Sonja of Lynnville; three daughters and their husbands, Jacks and Nels Person of Grapeview, Wash.; Charlotte and John Stalzer of Grinnell and Nella and Russ Saunders of Des Moines; a brother, Elmo (Bus) Briggs of Lynnville; grandchildren, Chris, Christian and Ashley Williams; Brandi and Bethany Briggs and Noah and Micah Saunders; other relatives and a host of friends. Watts Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements

Charles 'Dick' Briggs

Charles "Dick" Richard Briggs, 79, of Lynnville died Saturday, Dec. 11, at Mercy Hospital Medical Center in Des Moines.

A graveside service was held Tuesday afternoon at Mt. Zion Cemetery in Jasper County, with Pastor Pete Schuler of Lynnville officiating. Military graveside rites were conducted by members of the Newton V.F.W. and American Legion posts.

He was the son of Elmo Robert and Elna Margaret Fritz Briggs and was born Feb. 23, 1920, in Lynn Grove Township, Jasper County.

He served with the U.S. Army during World War II in the European theater.

On July 4, 1946, he was married to G. Maxine Scarbrough.

Mr. Briggs was a retired employee of the Sully Cooperative Creamery.

Surviving are his wife; one son, Cary of Lynnville; three daughters, Jackie Person of Grapeview, Wash., Charlotte Stalzer of Grinnell and Nella Saunders of Des Moines; one brother, Elmo "Bud" of Lynnville; and seven grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his parents; two sisters, Ruth Vos and Margaret Kling; and two brothers, Keith and Kenny.

M-R December 16, 1999