

Gerald Brignon

Gerald Brignon, 57, of Colorado Springs, Colo., formerly of Grinnell, died of emphysema Tuesday, Dec. 29, at a hospice in Colorado Springs.

Services will be held there, and graveside services will be conducted at a later date at Hazelwood Cemetery in Grinnell.

He was born April 17, 1941, in Grinnell to Ernest and Mary Turney Brignon. He attended school in Searsboro, then served with the U.S. Air Force.

While living in Colorado, he worked at the Red Cloud Restaurant in Cascade, Bobby's Camper Sales, the Ideal Cabinet Shop and Crete Carrier Service.

Surviving are a brother, Richard of Grinnell, and one sister, Beverly Davis of Quitman, Texas. He was preceded in death by his parents and one brother, Marion Covey.

Memorials may be directed to the American Lung Association and sent in care of the Smith Funeral Home, P.O. Box 368, Grinnell 50112.

H-R January 4, 1999

Gerald Brignon

Gerald Brignon, 57, of Colorado Springs, Colo., a native of Grinnell, died at a hospice home in Colorado Springs Dec. 29, 1998.

A graveside service for Mr. Brignon will be held at 10:30 a.m. Saturday at Hazelwood Cemetery, with the Rev. Del Dawes, pastor of the Grinnell United Methodist Church, officiating.

The son of Ernest and Mary Turney Brignon, he was born April 17, 1941, in Grinnell. He received his education in Searsboro.

Mr. Brignon was a veteran of the U.S. Air Force. While living in Colorado, he worked at the Reed Cloud Restaurant in Cascade, Bobby's Camper Sales in Manitou Springs and Idea Cabinet Shop in Colorado Springs. He had been employed with Crete Carrier Service in Colorado Springs since the early 1990s.

Surviving are one brother, Richard of Grinnell, and one sister, Beverly Davis of Quitman, Texas. He was preceded in death by his parents and one brother, Marion Covey.

Memorial contributions may be directed to the American Lung Association.

H-R August 5, 1999