

Rites held for Anna Brown

Anna Martin Brown, 85, of Richmond Beach, Wash., a native of Searsboro, died March 23 at her home.

The Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated Saturday, March 26, in Edmonds, Wash.

She was born June 17, 1902, at Searsboro. She was a graduate of Drake University. She was married to Fred M. Brown in Grinnell, July 18, 1929. Mrs. Brown had lived in Seattle, Wash., since 1929.

She was a member of St.

Luke Catholic Church in Seattle and was active in its St. Anne's Circle, the 50 Plus Club and the Visitation Bridge Club. She was a past president of the Richmond Beach Orthopedic Guild and a member of the Shoreline Historical Society.

Surviving are her sons, Robert J. of Edmonds and Gerald J. of Seattle; a sister, Marie Gilbert of Gordon, Neb.; and seven grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her husband.