

Mrs. Frank Brown Dies Suddenly Sunday Of A Heart Attack

H.R. 3-3-53
Mrs. Arvilla Esther Brown, wife of Frank L. Brown died at their farm home two miles south and three east of Grinnell at 10:45 p.m. Friday, aged 45 years. Death came very suddenly of a heart attack.

Funeral services in charge of Rev. C. E. Kingsley will be held at 2 p.m. Wednesday in the Smith funeral home with burial in Hazelwood cemetery. Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Bohstedt will provide the music.

Arvilla Esther Mackin, daughter of George and Emily Mackin, was born in Grinnell, Iowa, November 8, 1907 and spent her entire life in this area. Graduating from the local schools, she taught school in this area for nine years.

On November 24, 1938 she was married to Frank L. Brown, living in Grinnell until moving to the family farm in 1941. To this union was born one son, Max Eugene.

Her sudden death occurred Friday evening, February 27, 1953 at the farm home where she had gone to check on the evening chores. When a young girl she united with the First Baptist church. Her live interest was centered around her home and family, enjoying her friends and neighbors.

She leaves to mourn her passing her companion, Frank L. Brown, son Max, one brother, Sherman Mackin, several aunts, uncles, cousins, a niece, and a host of friends. She was preceded in death by her parents.