

Timothy W. Brown

Timothy W. Brown, 19, of 1424 Ann St., Grinnell, died Friday, April 6, of injuries he sustained in an automobile accident south of Marshalltown on Highway 14.

Funeral services were conducted Tuesday at the Grinnell Christian Church, with the Rev. John Epperson officiating. Organist was Jolene Jones, and pallbearers were Ray, Roger, Ronald, Rick, Rodney and Russell Puls. Burial was in Ivy Hill Cemetery at Malcom.

A Timothy Brown Memorial Fund has been established. Contributions may be sent in care of the Smith Funeral Home, P.O. Box 368, Grinnell.

The son of Ronald and Deborah Puls Brown, he was born June 30, 1970, in Grinnell. He graduated from Grinnell High School in 1988 and attended the University of Northern Iowa. He had been working on his business degree from Marshalltown Community College.

Mr. Brown worked part time for Tharp's Pharmacy and GTE North.

He is survived by his mother and stepfather, Deborah and Clifford Van Auken of Grinnell; his father, Ronald M. Brown of Malcom; his stepbrother and stepsister, Danny Van Auken of Ocala, Fla., and Maudey Van Auken of Centreville, Va.; his half-brother and half-sister, Will and Shannon Brown, both of Brooklyn; his paternal grandmother, Doris Brown of Malcom; his maternal grandmother, Betty Puls of Malcom; and his paternal step-grandparents, Gene and Helen Van Auken of Salix.

He was preceded in death by his paternal grandfather, Louis Brown, and his maternal grandfather, Raymond Puls.