

Mrs. Buchanan Rites Today

1/24/72
Eugenia P. Buchanan, 80, of the Gilman community died Tuesday, Jan. 24, at Grinnell General Hospital, following an extended illness.

The daughter of John and Florence Green Vandeventer, she was born Aug. 29, 1891, at Gilman, and was educated in that community.

She was married to William Buchanan and, following their marriage, they farmed in the Booneville, Iowa, area. After their retirement they moved to Gilman. Her husband preceded her in death in 1962.

Mrs. Buchanan is survived by her daughter, Mrs. Erma Dinin of St. Louis, Mo.; her grandson, Richard Chandlee of Overland Park, Kan.; three great-granddaughters and one great-great-granddaughter. Besides her husband she was preceded in death by her parents; two sisters, Alma Koger and Gertrude Baker; and two brothers, Cecil Vandeventer and Ray Vandeventer.

Funeral services for Mrs. Buchanan were held at 2 p.m. today (Thursday) at the James-Schalinske Funeral Home with the Rev. Hugh A. Shively, pastor of the First Baptist Church, officiating. Burial was in Prairie View Cemetery, Gilman. Organist was Mrs. Julia Pearce, and pallbearers included Roy Koger, Herbert Stewart, Walter Schueler, Denver Walker, Albert Ward Jr., and Carl Kvinlaug.