

Mrs. Buchenau rites Friday

Frances M. Buchenau, 88, of 1823 Ninth Ave., Grinnell, died Tuesday evening, Oct. 23, at Des Moines General Hospital.

Funeral services will be conducted at 1:30 p.m. Friday at the Smith Funeral Home, with the Rev. Kenneth Santee of the Lynnville Friends Church officiating, assisted by the Rev. Willard Reynolds of Grinnell. Burial will be at Hazelwood Cemetery.

The daughter of Arthur and Lula Beason Allen, she was born near Lynnville on Dec. 23, 1915. The family lived in Adel before coming to Newton in 1925 where she attended school, graduating from Newton High School in 1933. She worked for the Maytag Co. and during World War II worked for a brief time for Collins Radio in Cedar Rapids, later returning to Newton and Maytag.

On Nov. 18, 1944, she was married to Stewart L. Buchenau at Lynnville. The couple farmed southeast of Grinnell and near Prairie City, then returned to the Grinnell area in 1966. While in Prairie City, Mrs. Buchenau was a member of the F&F Neighborhood Club.

She is survived by her husband; one son, Steven of Grinnell; and one grandchild.
