

Darin Burck, 31

Darin Leigh Burck, 31, of Oskaloosa died Saturday, December 20, 1997 in Oskaloosa.

Funeral services were Tuesday, December 23 at Watts Funeral Home in Montezuma.

Mrs. Diane Wilcox was the organist for musical selections "How Great Thou Art" and "Amazing Grace."

Casket bearers were Todd Keller, Brian Aldrich, Dan Ross, Mike McKeag, Rob Gibson, Jamey Gibson, Leon Engelhardt, Troy Freeborn and David Hutchinson.

Honorary casket bearers were Gary and Cindy Junkins, Kenneth and Bonnie Keller, Fred Riddle, Rex Osborn and Rosie Kirby.

Interment was in Golden Rod Cemetery in Deep River.

Darin was born February 3, 1966 in Sigourney, the son of Larry and Helen (Wiebold) Burck. He was baptized and confirmed at Calvary Lutheran Church in Deep River.

He graduated from Deep River-Millersburg High School in 1984. He enlisted in the U.S. Air Force and served his country for three years. He attended Kirkwood Community College in Cedar Rapids and graduated from William Penn College in Oskaloosa.

For the past three years he worked for Gary Junkins Transportation in Oskaloosa where he became General Manager of Operations.

Darin enjoyed golf, hunting and riding and participated in RAGBRAI. He was an avid Hawkeye fan.

He was preceded in death by his grandfather, Irvin Wiebold.

He is survived by his mother, Helen Burck of Deep River; his father, Larry Burck of Millersburg; a sister and her husband, Debra and Bob Schmidt of Deep River; two brothers and their wives, David and Kristi Burck of Millersburg and Daniel and Kris Burck of Millersburg; his grandparents, Emma Wiebold of Millersburg and Ralph and Bertha Burck of Millersburg; several aunts, uncles, nieces and nephews and other relatives and many friends.

Darin Leigh Burck

Funeral services were held Tuesday morning, Dec. 23, at Watts Funeral Home in Montezuma for Darin Leigh Burck, 31, of Oskaloosa, who died Saturday, Dec. 20, 1997, at Oskaloosa.

Organist was Diane Wilcox, who played "How Great Thou Art" and "Amazing Grace." Casketbearers were Todd Keller, Brian Aldrich, Dan Ross, Mike McKeag, Rob Gibson, Jamey Gibson, Leon Engelhardt, Troy Freeborn and David Hutchinson. Honorary bearers were Gary and Cindy Junkins, Kenneth and Bonnie Keller, Fred Riddle, Rex Osborn and Rosie Kirby. Interment was in Golden Rod Cemetery, Deep River.

Darin was born Feb. 3, 1966, at Sigourney, the son of Larry and Helen Wiebold Burck. He was baptized and confirmed at Calvary Lutheran Church in Deep River. He graduated from Deep River-Millersburg High School in 1984.

He enlisted in the U.S. Air Force and served his country for three years. He attended Kirkwood Community College at Cedar Rapids, and graduated from William Penn College at Oskaloosa. For the past three years he has worked for Gary Junkins Transportation in Oskaloosa and was presently general manager of operations.

Darin's love and passion was golf. He also liked to hunt and ride RAGBRAI when possible. He was an avid Hawkeye fan.

Darin is survived by his mother, Helen Burck of Deep River, and his father, Larry Burck, of Millersburg; a sister and her husband, Debra and Bob Schmidt of Deep River; two brothers and their wives, David and Kristi Burck and Daniel and Kris Burck, all of Millersburg; grandparents, Emma Wiebold of Williamsburg, and Ralph and Bertha Burck of Millersburg; aunts and uncles; nieces and nephews; and other relatives and many, many friends.

MR December 31, 1997

BO December 31, 1997