

Last Rites Saturday For Mrs. Maud Busch

Mrs. Maud Busch, 76, a resident of Poweshiek county all of her life, died May 10 at Community hospital where she had been a patient for only a few days.

Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon at two o'clock at Bramer's funeral home in charge of the Rev. C.W. Woollard, pastor of Grace Methodist church. Mrs. Ed Bartachek was organist.

Interment was in Haven cemetery with Denver Miles, Dale Lippincott, Harry Rieck, Harry Bauman, Homer Carpenter and Clem De Meulenaere serving as pallbearers. Caring for flowers were Mr. and Mrs. Don Coburn and Mrs. Harry Rieck.

Mrs. Busch was the daughter of Merrick and Sybil Aden Graham. She was a member of the Fairview Christian church and also a member of the Methodist W.S.C.S.

In 1903 she was married to Roland O. Harman and three children were born to the couple.

In 1938 she was married to E.A. Busch. The couple lived on a farm one year when they retired and moved into Brooklyn. Mr. Busch died April 18, 1953.

Survivors include one son, Ronald O. Harman of Colorado Springs, Colo. and one sister, Mrs. Grace Edgington of Brooklyn.

She was preceded in death by her husband, parents, three brothers, two sisters and two children, Clifford and Thelma, who died in infancy.
