CLAUD HENRY SUTLER.

Claud Henry Butler passed away ou Tuesday, March 15th. While the sun was slowly sinking below the western horizon, Mr. Butler heard the Master's call, and in response to that summons he gently and peacefully slipped away from the home of Earth. On March 11th Mr. Butler sustained a fall, and as a result of the injuries received, lived only a few days. The deceased was born in the vicinity of New Virginia. Warren county, Iowa, Dec. 5, 1887. At the time of his death he was aged 22 years, 3 months and 13 days. He spent his boyhood days in the vicinity of Searshoro, Iowa. The last few years of his life he made his home with bis mother in Marshalltown, Iowa. Mr. Butler had many friends who loved him for his noble qualities of hears and mind. The many loving cribuces hald at his bier attest this. He was diaritable and benevolent and his loving kindness was an inspiration to disintimate friends. Ife leaves to mourn in irreparable loss a mother, two sizters and three brothers, all of whom are sorely bereaved and have the sympathy of all who know them.

I know not the way I am going,

Eut well do I know my guide.
With a childlike trust do I give my hand.

To the Mighty Friend by my side.
And the only thing that I say to Him,
As He takes it, is 'Hold it tast;
Suffer me not to lose my way.
And lead me home at last."

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. E. M. Gregson, in the Friends church, at Searsboro, Tuesday at 1 Felock. Interment at Friends cemery, near Lyanville. E. M. G.
