rites Friday

4-22-77

Ada F. Button, 93, died Thursday evening at the Health Care Center of the Mayflower Home here.

Graveside services will be conducted at 1 p.m. Friday at the East Lawn Cemetery at Sheldon, with the Rev. George E. Gibson, pastor of the United Church of Sheldon, officiating.

Friends may call the Smith Funeral Home for additional information.

The daughter of Asel Fred and Edith Colton Heath, she was born March 23, 1884, at Spirit Lake. She later moved to Sheldon with her family and was a graduate of Sheldon High School.

On July 21, 1907, she was married to Carl Orson Button in Sheldon, where they continued to make their home. Mrs. Button had been a resident of the Mayflower Home since 1965.

She is survived by three children, Robert O. Button of Marshalltown, Richard E. Button of Port Angeles, Wash., and Mrs. George (Barbara A.) Patterson of Montreal, Que., Canada; five grandchildren; and six great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her husband in 1961 and a sister, Mrs. Jenny Duffus.

While in Grinnell, Mrs. Button was a member of the United Church of Christ—Congregational, the DAR, and the PEO.
