

Mrs. Viola Caldwell Rites Held Thursday

Mrs. Viola Caldwell, 79, of 1030 Elm Street, Grinnell, passed away Monday, July 27, at the Grinnell General Hospital.

The daughter of Grant and Elizabeth Snyder Johnson, she was born Oct. 21, 1890, near Montezuma. She attended the Miller public school, southwest of Montezuma. She married Denver L. Caldwell on May 1, 1910, at her parents' home near Montezuma. Following their marriage they farmed for a number of years. In 1938 they moved to Grinnell and operated an apartment house and a mobile home court. Mr. Caldwell died on July 12, 1964.

She was a life long member of the West Liberty Church of Christ and a member of the American Legion Auxiliary.

She is survived by her daughter, Mrs. Nina Harris of Ames; four sons, Wilbur of Dewitt, Iowa, Harold of Grinnell, James of York Haven, Penn., and Thomas of Yokahama, Japan; nine grandchildren, 10 great grandchildren; three sisters, Miss Olive Johnson of Montezuma, Mrs. Nina Schooley of Deep River and Miss Margaret Johnson of Montezuma; two brothers, Al and Alvie Johnson, both of Montezuma.

Besides her husband she was also preceded in death by her parents, a daughter, Pauline, and an infant son and a brother, Harley Johnson.

Funeral services for Mrs. Caldwell were held Thursday afternoon at the West Liberty Church of Christ.

Mr. James T. Ross officiated and music was provided by Mr. and Mrs. James T. Ross. Pallbearers were Harold Dost, Ralph Seville, Roger Weaver, Lloyd Gilbreath, Clair Strand, and Bert Johnson.

(DENVER)

Thursday, July 30, 1970

Viola Caldwell Services Today

Funeral services for Mrs. Viola Caldwell, 79, who died Monday at Grinnell General Hospital, were held at 2 p.m. today (Thursday) at the West Liberty Church of Christ east of Searsboro.

The James-Schalinske Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements. Officiating was James T. Ross, and music was provided by Mr. and Mrs. James T. Ross. Pallbearers included Harold Dost, Ralph Seville, Roger Weaver, Lloyd Gilbreath, Clair Strand and Bert Johnson.

The daughter of Grant and Elizabeth Snyder Johnson, she was born on Oct. 21, 1890, near Montezuma. She attended the Miller public school southwest of Montezuma.

On May 1, 1910, she was married Denver L. Caldwell at her parents' home near Montezuma. Following their marriage, the couple farmed for a number of years. In 1938, they moved to Grinnell and operated an apartment house and mobile home court.

She was a life-long member of the West Liberty Church of Christ and was also a member of the American Legion Auxiliary.

Mrs. Caldwell is survived by her daughter, Mrs. Nina Harris of Ames; four sons, Wilbur of Dewitt, Harold of Grinnell, James of York Haven, Penn., and Thomas of Yokahama, Japan; nine grandchildren; 10 great-grandchildren; three sisters, Olive Johnson of Montezuma, Mrs. Nina Schooley of Deep River, and Margaret Johnson of Montezuma; and two brothers, Al and Alvie Johnson, both of Montezuma.

She was preceded in death by her husband in 1964, her parents, her daughter Pauline, an infant son, and her brother Harley.