m<sup>s</sup> Ruth Campbell memorial set

Ruth Campbell, 92, died Tuesday evening, July 17, at the Mayflower Home Health Care Center.

Memorial services will be conducted at 11 a.m. Tuesday at the Grinnell First Presbyterian Church, with the Rev. Daniel Ogata officiating. Following cremation, burial will be in Newton Union Cemetery.

Memorials in Miss Campbell's name may be made to the church or to the Mayflower Home. Friends may call the Smith Funeral Home for additional information.

The daughter of Culver Woodburn and Margaret Elizabeth Skiles Campbell, she was born May 16, 1892, in Newton. She attended Newton schools and graduated from Grinnell College in 1916. She taught music in several school systems and took advanced training in pipe organ at Columbia University in 1926. She also studied piano at Drake University and attended the Eastman School of Music in Rochester, N.Y. Miss Campbell had taught music privately in Newton for many years before coming to Grinnell in 1975. While here, she was a member of the First Presbyterian Church and Chapter J.B. of the P.E.O.

There are no immediate survivors. She was preceded in death by eight brothers and sisters.
