

Elizabeth Carlsen (HAROLD)

Funeral services were held Monday morning, July 28, in the Nevenhoven Funeral Home in Brooklyn, for Mrs. Elizabeth Carlsen, 93, of Grinnell, who died Friday night, July 25, 1997. The Rev. William B. Daylong, pastor of Grace United Methodist Church of Brooklyn, officiated. The organist was Marilyn Kriegel. Casketbearers were Raymond Spriggs, Eugene Miller, John Kriegel, John McNaul, Harry McNaul and Myron Byers. Interment was in the Brooklyn Memorial Cemetery.

Elizabeth Mary McNaul Carlsen, daughter of John McNaul and Mary Jane Moore McNaul, was born March 16, 1904, in County Antrim, Northern Ireland.

She received her education in Ireland, and came to the United States in 1923 to the James Moore residence south of Brooklyn. On Aug. 16, 1927, she was married to Harold Stewart Carlsen. They farmed near Brooklyn for many years. When they retired, they moved into Brooklyn and seven years ago they became residents of Friendship Manor. Mr. Carlsen died June 21, 1994.

Mrs. Carlsen was a member of Grace United Methodist Church of Brooklyn, where she sang in the choir, taught Sunday school, and was active for many years in other activities in the church. She often held bake sales for the Korean orphans. She was a member of the HGL Club.

She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband, two sisters and four brothers.

Survivors include one sister, Agnes Spriggs of Grinnell, and three brothers, William McNaul of County Down of Northern Ireland, Joseph McNaul of County Antrim, Northern Ireland, and Sam McNaul of Grinnell.
