

Dale Casady services held ^{H-R January 17, 1980}

Dale D. Casady, 66, of Kellogg, died early Saturday morning, Jan. 12, at his home.

Funeral services were conducted at 1:30 p.m. Tuesday at the Wallace Funeral Home in Newton, with the Rev. Robert Hinshaw officiating. Burial was at Our Silent City Cemetery, Kellogg.

The son of Wilda and Myrtle Moore Casady, he was born July 5, 1913, at Pineville, Mo. He was married to Carol Sparks on Nov. 11, 1939, at Unionville.

Mr. Casady had lived in Graysville, Mo., before moving to Kellogg.

Survivors include his wife, Carol; two sons, Richard of Burlington and Harvey of Newton; a daughter, Mrs. Keith (Judith) Westercamp of Kellogg; his mother, Mrs. Myrtle Casady of Queen City, Mo.; six grandchildren; three brothers and four sisters.

He was preceded in death by his father, three grandchildren and a sister.