

cruelty to children and animals.

4-9-1901
—To the already very long death list of the old settlers we must now add another name, that of George W. Chambers. He has just died in Boulder, Colo., where he had resided some 42 years. His family was in the "Long Home" when Mrs Grinnell arrived here in 1854. He was an energetic man, a valuable citizen.