

H-R November 17, 1994

Geraldine Chambers

Geraldine Chambers, 67, of New Sharon died Sunday, Nov. 13, at her home.

Funeral services were conducted Tuesday at the Harden Funeral Home in New Sharon, with the Rev. Max Johnson officiating. Burial was in Forest Cemetery, Oskaloosa. Memorial contributions in her name may be made to the Ronald McDonald House in Iowa City.

The daughter of William and Cornelis Hols Visser, she was born July 1, 1927, in Truax, Iowa. She was married to Thomas B. Chambers Oct. 24, 1947, in Missouri.

Mrs. Chambers had worked at Pella Rollscreen, the Siesta Park Care Center and the Oskaloosa Public Library before retiring. She had lived in Oskaloosa all of her life until moving to New Sharon in June of this year. She was a member of the Oskaloosa Church of the Open Bible.

Surviving are two daughters, Judy Beason of Oskaloosa and Linda Beason of New Sharon; nine grandchildren; 12 great-grandchildren; four brothers, Richard, Cornelius and Martin Visser of Oskaloosa and John Visser of Davenport; and one sister, Mary Lanphier of Port Orchard, Wash.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband; two grandchildren, Jason and Ashley Ware; and two sisters, Hattie Cook and Ellen Mason.

(THOMAS)