

Orville Clark Dies Wednesday At Home Here

7-14-1960
Orville Larue Clark, 70, 1601 Summer St., died suddenly at his home Wednesday. He had not been in good health recently.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Saturday from the Smith Funeral Home with the Rev. C. E. Kingsley, pastor of the First Baptist Church, officiating. Burial will be in Hazelwood cemetery.

He was the son of William A. and Jennie L. Kissinger Clark at Castleton, Ill., on Nov. 24th, 1889. He received his education in Alexis, Ill. and later lived in Monmouth, Ill., before moving to Grinnell 30 years ago.

On Sept. 16th, 1930, at Davenport, he was united in marriage with Edna Rinker and to this union were born two sons, Dean, of Stanton, Calif., and Dick, of Grinnell.

Mr. Clark is survived by his wife, Edna; his two sons; and 18 grandchildren; and one brother, Floyd, of Alexis, Ill.

More recently he had been employed at the Dixie Inn.
