

Mrs. Buel

(Buel)

Sarah Clary rites today

H-P December 9, 1982

Sarah Clary, 70, of 902 Prince St., Grinnell, died Tuesday morning, Dec. 7, at Grinnell General Hospital.

Funeral services will be conducted at 1:30 p.m. today at the Smith Funeral Home, with the Rev. James Russell of the Grinnell United Methodist Church officiating. Organist will be Kathleen Heffner, and pallbearers will be Wesley Ahrens, Earl Reedy, Cliff Thompson, Michael Vrbanc, Merrill Wherry and Bill Williams. Burial will be at Hazelwood Cemetery.

The daughter of James and Minnie Agnes Smyth Craig, she was born April 6, 1912, at Glasgow, Scotland. She and her parents moved to the U.S. and settled in the Newburg area. She was a 1932 graduate of Grinnell High School.

On March 16, 1934, she was married to Buel Clary at Glenville, Minn. Mrs. Clary had been employed as a medical librarian at Ringgold County Hospital at Mt. Ayr. She moved to Grinnell 10 years ago.

She was a past worthy matron of Bethany Chapter No. 23, Order of Eastern Star, as Bethany, Mo., and had been state district inspectress for the O.E.S. for northern Missouri. She was also a member of the Methodist Church of Bethany.

Survivors include a son, James B. Clary of Moore, Okla.; two stepdaughters, Betty Murphy and Clodell Butts, both of Oklahoma City, Okla.; four step-grandchildren; two sisters, Winnifred Williams of Des Moines and Anna Ethel May of Phoenix, Ariz.; and a brother, John Craig of Oakland Acres. She was preceded in death by her parents and her husband.