

Walt Claussen Of Kellogg Dies Tuesday

H-R May 5, 1955

Walter R. Claussen, 74, lifelong resident of the Kellogg and Jasper county vicinity, died Tuesday afternoon at a Grinnell hospital. Employed by the Midwest Metal Stamping company, he had lived at Kellogg the past 24 years.

Funeral services will be held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Christian church in Kellogg. Burial will be in Our Silent City cemetery.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. John Claussen, he was born at Newton on March 13, 1881. He was married to Maude Adkins.

Surviving are six sons, Bill and Ellis of Kellogg, Bertram and Carroll of Newton, Jack of Des Moines and Francis of Colton, Calif.; three daughters, Mrs. Pearley (Una) Sparks of Pannora, Mrs. Al (Fannie) Freese of Tucson, Arizona, and Mrs. Nona Simpson of Des Moines.

Also surviving are a sister, Mrs. Ella MacMillan of the Dominican Republic and nine grandchildren.