

Margaret Cleland

Margaret "Peggy" Cleland, 51, of Leisure City, Fla., a native of Grinnell, died of cancer Feb. 24 in Miami.

A memorial service will be conducted at 11 a.m. Saturday, April 29, at Watts Funeral Home in Montezuma, with the Rev. Michael Crouch, pastor of the Oskaloosa First Christian Church, officiating. Reading will be by Julie Herbest, and music will be by keyboardist and soloist Craig McClenahan. Burial of the ashes will be in Pleasant Township Cemetery, Ewart.

She was born Feb. 15, 1943, in Grinnell, the daughter of William Raymond and Irene Hink Cleland. She graduated from Montezuma High School and William Penn College in Oskaloosa. She taught school in Colfax, Bellevue and Montour before moving to Florida.

She is survived by her mother, Irene Cleland of Oskaloosa, and a brother, Bill, also of Oskaloosa.

She was preceded in death by her father.

Margaret Cleland, 51

Margaret "Peggy" Cleland, 51, of Leisure City, Florida, died February 24, 1995 at Miami, Fla., of cancer.

Funeral services will be held at 11 a.m. Saturday, April 29, 1995 at Watts Funeral Home, Montezuma. The Rev. Michael Crouch, First Christian Church, Oskaloosa, will officiate. Mr. Craig McClenahan will provide music at the keyboard and sing "Amazing Grace" and "I Walk Alone." A reading will be given by Mrs. Julie Herbest. Burial will be in Pleasant Township Cemetery, Ewart, Ia.

Peggy was born February 15, 1943 at Grinnell, Ia., the daughter of William Raymond and Irene (Hink) Cleland. She graduated from Montezuma High School and William Penn College in Oskaloosa. She taught school at Colfax, Bellevue and Montour, before moving to Florida. Peggy did substitute teaching before going to work for Dr. Dansky.

She was preceded in death by her grandparents and father, Raymond in 1968.

Peggy is survived by her mother, Irene Cleland of Oskaloosa; a brother and his wife, Bill and Patty Cleland of Oskaloosa; two nieces, Julie Herbest of Gurnee, Ill., and Jennifer McClenahan of Keota; a great-niece and nephew, Tiffany and Tanner McClenahan; and other relatives and many friends.