Funeral Today

Funeral services for Charles C. Cline, aged 71, who passed away at his home at 918 Spring street Saturday afternoon, will be held from the home this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, conducted by Rev. A. B. Cadwell. Burial will be at Hazelwood cemetery.

Mr. Cline suffered a stroke several years ago and during the past year has been practically bedfast. His death was caused by heart trouble. He has made his home in Grinnell for the past several years, formerly farming near Lynnvile for many years. He is survived by his widow, a daughter, Mrs. Fred Hoover of this city, a son, Harry on a farm southwest of Grinnell and a son, George, who lives in California. Ten grandchildren also survive.
