

Rites Set for Edith Colony

1/9/74
Edith W. Colony, 89, died Wednesday afternoon (Jan. 9) at the extended care unit of Grinnell General Hospital, following an extended illness.

The daughter of Mahlon K. and Mary Wolfe, she was born April 18, 1884, near North Liberty, Iowa, in Johnson County.

She was formerly Mrs. A.J. Brock and moved to Grinnell in 1907. Dr. A.J. Brock practiced dentistry here until his death in 1940. She then moved to Iowa City and was married to Lee Colony in 1944, now deceased. Her daughter Beatrice also preceded her in death in 1944.

Mrs. Colony had lived in Grinnell the last two years. She was a member of the United Church of Christ-Congregational, a member of the Priscilla Club, and was past worthy matron of the Eastern Star.

Survivors include one sister, Mrs. Glea Schultz of Glendale, Calif.; a son, Dr. A.W. Brock of Grinnell; a granddaughter, Elizabeth Marker of Des Moines; a grandson, Frederick H. Brock of Allentown, Pa.; and two great-grandchildren, Christine and Douglas Brock.

Funeral services for Mrs. Colony will be held Saturday afternoon, Jan. 12, at the James-Schalinske Funeral Home, with the Rev. Newell E. Davis officiating. Burial will be in Hazelwood Cemetery.

Friends may call the James-Schalinske Funeral Home for additional information.

Edith Colony Services Held

1/9/74
Funeral services for Edith W. Colony, 89, who died Jan. 9 in Grinnell, were held at 2 p.m. Saturday at the James-Schalinske Funeral Home, with the Rev. Newell E. Davis, pastor of the United Church of Christ-Congregational, officiating.

Organist was Kathleen Heffner, and pallbearers were Norman Goodbrod, Irving R. Howell, Charles L. Kaufman, Dr. James Paisley, Charles Vogel, and William E. Caughey.

Burial was in Hazelwood Cemetery.