

Thursday, June 13, 1970

Former Resident Dies At Knoxville

Funeral services were held at 11 a.m. Monday, June 15, at the George C. Carson & Sons Chapel in Independence, Mo., for Clyde W. Combs, 46, of Independence, Mo., who died in a Knoxville hospital June 11, after suffering a heart attack.

Mervin C. Buehler and Guy Hatfield officiated at the services. Organist was Mrs. W. Amos Esry. Soloist was Robert Tindall.

Burial was in the Belton Cemetery.

The son of Aren and Eva Combs of Grinnell, Mr. Combs was born March 28, 1924, in Brooklyn. He was raised in Grinnell and lived here until about ten years ago when he moved to Missouri.

Survivors include his wife, Jacoba; six sons—Dennis and Benny of Independence and Ronnie, Stephen, Terry and Garry at the family home; one daughter, Rovena at the home; his mother Mrs. Eva Combs, who is living at the Goeke Nursing Home in Montezuma; one brother, Pat Combs of Kansas City, Mo.; and four sisters—Mrs. Delmer (Pauline) Lunch of Belton, Mo., Mrs. Raymond (Ruth) Rhinehart of Brooklyn, Mrs. Lloyd (Marie) Strong of Newton and Mrs. John (Della) Patten of Grinnell.

Mr. Combs was preceded in death by his father; one son, Kenny, and one brother, Bill.