Jennie Condit services held

Jennie Condit, 86, of the Mayflower Home died Tuesday, Aug. 18, at the Mayflower Health Care Center.

Funeral services were conducted at 10 a.m. Saturday at the First Congregational Church at Monticello, with the Rev. Glenn Bender, pastor of the First Congregational Church of Cedar Rapids, officiating. Burial was in Oakwood Cemetery, Monticello.

The daughter of Robert and Mary Jane Munroe Kippen, she was born on Oct. 11, 1901, in Omeemee, N.D. She graduated from Omeemee High School in 1918 and attended the University of North Dakota for one year, then taught in rural schools for five years.

She was married to Chester Condit on Nov. 28, 1923, at Glenbern, N.D. The couple moved to Monticello in 1934. While in Monticello, Mrs. Condit operated a Mode O'Day women's apparel store. She was also employed at Edwards Department Store in Monticello. She was a leader in the local Camp Fire organization and was a member of the First Congregational Church.

She is survived by her daughter, Margaret Hastings of Indianapolis, Ind.; a brother, John Kippen of Omeemee; five grandchildren; and 11 great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband and infant son.
