

Teresa Cooper

Teresa A. Cooper, 18, of 1227 Main St., Grinnell, died at her home Tuesday, Feb. 26.

The cause of death has not been determined. An autopsy was performed by the state medical examiner, and results are pending.

Funeral services will be conducted at 10:30 a.m. Saturday at the Grinnell United Methodist Church, with the Rev. Raymond Lott officiating. Organist will be Margaret Wheeler, and pallbearers will be Leon, Roger and Daryl Beck, John Carter, Joel Clifton and Wayne Neville. Burial will be in Hickory Grove Cemetery near Newburg.

Memorials may be made to the Grinnell United Methodist Church.

The daughter of Larry and Sandra Clifton Cooper, she was born Nov. 22, 1972, in Grinnell. She attended Grinnell schools.

Surviving are her parents; one sister, Kim Cooper of Grinnell; two brothers, David of Newton and Randy of Kenner, La.; her paternal grandparents, Everett and Betty Cooper of Kellogg; and her maternal grandparents, Kenneth and Dorothy Clifton of Grinnell.

Blood infection killed girl here

Teresa Cooper, 18, of Grinnell, who died at her home Feb. 26, suffered from a massive blood infection, an autopsy has shown.

Dr. Thomas Bennett, state medical examiner, performed an autopsy last week and concluded that the young woman died of the infection.

H-18 February 28, 1991