Obituary of

Elizabeth Corrough

Miss Elizabeth Isabelle Corrough was born near Malcom, Iowa, Sept. 28, 1869, daughter of James and Mary Conley Corrough.

She attended country school and the academy at Grinnell and was graduated from Grinnell college in 1897. She lived in or near Grinnell most of her life and was active in various civic, philanthropic and social organizations.

Miss Corrough was a member of the Congregational church, serving in its women's fellowship and board of deaconesses. She was also a member of the P. E. O. sisterhood, the Historical club, the Priscilla club and the League of Women Voters.

In 1948 she went to Hampton to live near the niece and nephew for whom she had cared in their childhood. An invalid for the past seven years, she died Jan. 28, 1954 in a Hampton hospital. She is survived by five nieces and four nephews, all of whom hold her in very affectionate memory.
