Hazel Cory

Hazel Charlotte Cory, 88, died Tuesday, Dec. 3, at the Mayflower.

A memorial service was conducted Wednesday at the Mayflower's Carman Center, with the Rev. Lon L. Lewis, pastor of the Grinnell United Methodist Church, and the Rev. Orland Mitchell, chaplain of the Mayflower, officiating. Pianist was Norman Goodbrod.

Burial was in Oak Hill Cemetery, Tama, with the Smith Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

She was the daughter of Benjamin and Emma Dingee Cory and was born Nov. 1, 1908, in rural Tama County. She moved with her family to Tama and was a 1927 graduate of Tama High School. She received her B.A. degree from Cornell College in 1931 and her M.A. from the University of Iowa in 1939.

She taught high school at Donnelson, St. Ansgar, Spencer and Grundy Center, then taught for 25 years at Franklin Junior and Senior High Schools in Cedar Rapids. She retired in 1970 and returned to Tama. She had been a resident of the Mayflower here since 1981.

She was a member of the United Methodist Church. She was also a member of Phi Beta Kappa, Delta Kappa Gamma and state and national education organizations.

Surviving is a sister, Esther Typer of the Mayflower. She was preceded in death by her parents.
