

H-R October 13, 1979

Mrs. Cottrell rites Friday

FRANK

Maude R. Cottrell, 82, of Newton died Monday evening at Skiff Memorial Hospital there. Dec. 10

Funeral services will be held at 1 p.m. Friday at the Smith Funeral Home, with the Rev. Robert C. Smith, pastor of the Grinnell First Baptist Church, officiating. Organist will be Julia Pearce, and pallbearers will be LeRoy Bale, Gene Broders, Merle Hatfield, Gene Mairet, Melvin Walker and Robert Walker. Burial will be at Hazelwood Cemetery.

The daughter of George and Sarah Francis Taylor, she was born Feb. 7, 1897, at Rock Castle, Ky. She attended rural school in the Quail, Ky., area.

On May 13, 1917, she was married to Frank Cottrell at Quail. Following their marriage, they moved to Iowa and farmed near Montezuma until 1954 when they moved to Grinnell. Mr. Cottrell died in 1966, and Mrs. Cottrell moved to Newton in 1971.

Survivors include her children, Mrs. Robert (Velvia) Damman of Newton, Mrs. Alice Fielder of Kellogg, Mrs. Doris Weaver of Des Moines, and Robert Cottrell of Newton; eight grandchildren; 13 great-grandchildren; two great-great-grandchildren; two brothers, Fred and Ernest Taylor, both of Crab Orchard, Ky.; and a sister, Mrs. Flossie Larsen of Montezuma. She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband; one son, Frank Edward Cottrell; two brothers, Ed and Roy Taylor; and one sister, Mrs. Allie Manatt.