John Hall, Mrs. A. M. Hogan, J. F. Dryden, J. G., and H. Rayburn of Montezuma, J. C. Kibby, Mrs. Ellen R., and Elmer Rayburn of Brooklyn and J. J. Sparks and wife and John Dryden of New Sharon.

The Franklin club adopted the following resolutions on the death of Mr. E. B. Cox:

Resolved, That we deeply deplore the death, in the prime of a useful life, of Mr. E. B. Cox, one of the oldest and most respected members of the club; and one who was noted among us for his cheerfulness and fidelity as a friend and for other sterling traits of character, and whose absence from the club will be felt as a personal loss by his associates.

Resolved, That we sympathize profoundly with the family of Mr. Cox in their affliction.

Resolved, That members of the club attend the funeral as a body.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family.

C. R. Morsz, President. D. W. Norris, Secretary.

Z. B. John of West Liberty, the Rev. Walter Stoddard and wife D. H. Murphey and G. A. Roe of Grinnell. K.

E. B. COX.

E. B. Cox was born in Indiana in 1842. When but four years of age his parents moved to Lynville, where two years later he lost his father. Thus thrown upon his own resources he learned self reli ance. In 1864 he married Miss May Dryden of Newton, from which union four children were born, three of whom with his wife survive him. Mr. Cox engaged in his present business in Lynville where he remained till 1881, when he came to Grinnell and engaged in the produce business. The funeral was held from the house at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning, conducted by the Rev. E. M. Vittum, and his remains were laid to rest in the Hazlewood cemetery. The masic for these impressive services was furnished by Messrs A. C. Harriman, E. B. Brande, Manly Kendall and Dr. P. E. Somers. The pall bearers were C. N. Perry, H. C. Spencer, C. A. Swisher, L. L. Benson, William Miles and Dr. E. B. Wiley. Floral offering were given by the Masons, the Woodmen, the Fire Company and Franklyn Club, each of which organizations accompanied the body to the cemetery. The services at the grave were in charge of the Masons, A. F. Barnes acting as Worshipful Mas-

Since Mr. Cox has been actively connected with the business interests of the city, he has shown himself a man of energy and influence. He has taken a prominent position in local affairs of the city and county, has kept himself well informed on current topics and took a deep interest in political movements. He had a birth right in the Friends' church and retained membership in that organization while living in Lynville. He was a good husband, a kind and indulgent father and a good neighbor. He leaves a mother, a wife and three children, Mr. D. M. Cox and Misses Hallie and Ola Cox, to mourn the loss of a dutiful son, kind husband and indulgent father.

Those present from out of town were Mr. Cox' mother, Mrs. S. Presnell of Kansas, A. F. Rayburn and wife, Mrs.
