 7-16-1915

Nathaniel Washington Cox.

Nathaniel Washington Cox was born at Jacksonville, Ill., February 14, 1839, and died at his home near Drinkwater, Saskatchewan, Canada, July 6, 1915, aged 76 years, 4 months, and 22 days.

He came to Iowa with his parents at the age of ten years, and settled near Kellogg, and was a resident of Jasper county until eight years ago, when he removed to Canada.

On Nov. 17, 1859, he was united in marriage to Mahala J. Carson, who survives him. To this union were born six children, two of whom died in infancy; the remaining four are, Mrs. E. P. Bonsall of this city, A. L. Cox of Marshalltown, Mrs. B. R. Crawford, of Admiral, Saskatchewan, Canada, and E. M. Cox of Newton. He also leaves ten grandchildren, two great-grandchildren and three brothers, R. J. Cox of Grinnell, A. T. Cox of Enid, Okla., and H. M. Cox of Newton.

The funeral was held at the Mount Pleasant M. E. church, and burial was in the adjoining cemetery.

Card of Thanks.

We desire to thank all the friends and neighbors for the many expressions of sympathy and kindly, helpful deeds during the burial of our husband and father.
