

Florence M. Croskrey BC Nov. 3, 1999

Graveside services were held Saturday afternoon, Oct. 30, at Ivy Hill Cemetery, Malcom, for Florence Marie Croskrey, 87, of Durham, N.C., a native of Brooklyn, who died of congestive heart failure Wednesday, Sept. 15, 1999, in Durham.

She was born May 1, 1912, in Brooklyn, the daughter of Walter and Ethel Pease. She spent most of her adult life in California, where she raised her family. She spent her later years in North Carolina.

Surviving are one daughter, Donna C. Buckner of Durham; one son, Jerry of Trego, Mont.; five grandchildren; one great-granddaughter; one sister, Audrey Haunsperger of Grinnell; and one brother, Delmar Pease, of Molalla, Ore.

M S Florence M. Croskrey

Florence Marie Croskrey, 87, of Durham, N.C., a native of Brooklyn, died of congestive heart failure Wednesday, Sept. 15, in Durham.

Graveside services will be conducted at 2 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 30, at Ivy Hill Cemetery, Malcom.

She was the daughter of Walter and Ethel Pease and was born May, 1, 1912, in Brooklyn. She spent most of her adult life in California where she raised her family. She spent her later years in North Carolina.

Surviving are one daughter, Donna C. Buckner of Durham; one son, Jerry of Trego, Mont.; five grandchildren; one great-granddaughter; one sister, Audrey Haunsperger of Grinnell; and one brother, Delmar Pease of Molalla, Ore. H-R 10-25-1999