

Mrs. Crossett rites Saturday

Dorothy Crossett, 72, of the Norris Apartments died Thursday afternoon after suffering an apparent heart attack at the Grinnell Post Office. While Mr. Crossett was associated with the Railway Express Co. for several years, the family lived in Washington and Marion before coming to Grinnell in 1944. Mrs. Crossett was a member of the Grinnell United Methodist Church, Beulah Chapter of the Order of Eastern Star, and other Masonic women's societies. Before her health failed, she had worked at the former Bartling and Nuckalls Jewelry store and the Kramer Jewelry Store.

Funeral services were held at 1:30 p.m. Saturday at the Smith Funeral Home, with the Rev. James P. Russell, pastor of the Grinnell United Methodist Church, officiating. Organist was Kathleen Heffner, and pallbearers were Walter Barnes, Glen Harris, Walter Harris, Max Hill, Boyd Locker and Ellis Brown.

Burial was at Hazelwood Cemetery.

Should friends desire, memorials in Mrs. Crossett's name may be made to the Grinnell United Methodist Church.

The daughter of C.M. and Minnie Edwards Hazen, she was born Jan. 19, 1904, at Washington, Ia. She attended schools in that community.

On Sept. 22, 1924, she was married to Earl Donald Crossett at Wellman. The couple had three children. She is survived by two sons, Donald of Hampton, Va., and Richard of Macomb, Ill.; 11 grandchildren; four great-grandchildren; three brothers, Dwight Hazen of Urbandale, Rex Hazen of Portland, Ore., and Howard Hazen of Washington, Ia.; and a sister, Mrs. Alfred (Mabel) Neal of Des Moines.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband, Earl, in 1971; and a son, William, in infancy.
