

Accident

Services Held At Herrick Chapel Today

H-R Jan 30, 56

College Music Professor
Dies Shortly After Crash
On Hgw. 6 Near Stuart

Duane Crossley, 39, Grinnell College music faculty member, was fatally injured in a Friday morning crash about a mile west of Stuart on Highway 6.

Taken to a hospital at Greenfield, Crossley succumbed some two hours after the highway accident.

Alone In Car

On his way to see California friends visiting in southwest Iowa, Crossley was alone in his car when it collided with a car driven by Robert M. Stone, 30, of Des Moines.

Stone, who is press representative in the Iowa-Nebraska area for M-G-M pictures, suffered minor injuries in the accident.

FUNERAL SERVICES HELD HERE TODAY

Funeral services were held at 2 p.m. today in Herrick chapel with the Rev. J. Gregori, vicar of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, conducting the service. He was assisted by the Rev. Winston L. King, dean of the chapel.

Organ music for the services was by Hoyle Carpenter of the college music faculty. Barbara Hansen, a member of the Women's Glee club, was soprano soloist. Six members of the Men's Glee club served as pallbearers. They were Thomas Boc, David Day, Dorsey Holt, Robert L. Holmes, Richard Wagner and Peter Walker.

No Classes

No college classes were held and all college offices were closed during the services. Burial was at Hazelwood cemetery.

A requiem service was conducted at 8 this morning at St. Paul's church by the Rev. J. Gregori.

Tribute By Bowen

Grinnell President Howard R. Bowen, in a statement made Saturday, paid tribute to Crossley's contribution "to the enrichment of campus life and public enjoyment" during his nearly four years here. "He was a fine director, an accomplished artist, and a good teacher," Dr. Bowen said.

Crossley is survived by his

(Continued on Page 2)

Duane Crossley

at Grinnell College.

first year as instructor in violin

ers College, who is now in her

Betty Jean Barney, instructor

In May, 1954, he married

Norma, now 5, and David, now

In 1946, Crossley married Rose

He has been at Grinnell College

professor of music at the Uni-

For the year prior to coming

Came here in 1952

the Berkshire Music Festival.

Following his tour of service, Crossley enrolled at the Academy of Vocal Arts in Philadelphia where he took complete professional training in opera. During this period, he was the leading bass for the American Opera Company in Philadelphia and engaged in other professional singing in New York City, and

Operatic Training
and produced shows of all types. As a member of the special services division, he entertained Force from 1942 to 1946 where, He served with Army Air gun, Iowa and Gallen, Michi-

Crossley taught school at Delmar, Iowa and Gallen, Michi- During the years 1940-42, degree in 1950. where he received his master's degree in 1950. He also attended Iowa State Teachers College, the University of Michigan and Columbia University

He was graduated from Cornell College in 1938 with a bachelor of music degree. He also

attended Iowa State Teachers College, the University of Michigan and Columbia University

He was graduated from Cornell College in 1938 with a bachelor of music degree. He also

attended Iowa State Teachers College, the University of Michigan and Columbia University

He was graduated from Cornell College in 1938 with a bachelor of music degree. He also

attended Iowa State Teachers College, the University of Michigan and Columbia University

He was graduated from Cornell College in 1938 with a bachelor of music degree. He also

attended Iowa State Teachers College, the University of Michigan and Columbia University

He was graduated from Cornell College in 1938 with a bachelor of music degree. He also

attended Iowa State Teachers College, the University of Michigan and Columbia University

He was graduated from Cornell College in 1938 with a bachelor of music degree. He also

attended Iowa State Teachers College, the University of Michigan and Columbia University

He was graduated from Cornell College in 1938 with a bachelor of music degree. He also attended Iowa State Teachers College, the University of Michigan and Columbia University

Crossley
Jan 30, 1956
(Continued From Page 1)

REF AD-REGISTER