

Steven A. Davis

Steven A. Davis, 41, died following a sudden illness at work on Saturday morning, Dec. 23, 2000 in Montezuma, IA.

Funeral Services were conducted at 10 a.m. Wednesday, Dec. 27, 2000 at the United Methodist Church in Keswick, IA. Pastor James Stout officiated. Burial followed in the Sorden Cemetery near Keswick. A general memorial fund has been established.

Steven was born on March 29, 1959 in Sigourney, IA and was a son of Robert and Betty Joann Ruggles Davis. He graduated from Tri-County High School in 1979 and attended the National Institute of Electronics in Des Moines.

Steven was a member of the Iowa Army National Guard 194th Cavalry Unit in Des Moines for eight years. He was a sports enthusiast and loved watching the Vikings on TV, auto racing, wrestling and all sports.

He lived his entire life in the Keswick Community. He had recently been employed at Montezuma Manufacturing.

Steven is survived by his parents of Keswick, brothers, Michael D. Davis and his wife Cindy, of South English and Robert J. Davis of Keswick; his grandmother, Bessie Ruggles of Keswick; a sister-in-law, Sandra Davis of Washington; and several nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his brothers, Jerry and Mark; grandparents, Chester and Dorothy Davis and John Ruggles; and a sister-in-law, Connie Davis. MR

JANUARY 3, 2001